CAPE GIRARDEAU, MO. – Old Town Cape submitted four nominations for awards that will be presented at the Missouri Main Street Conference in St. Louis, MO July 25-27.

The nominations included the Charles L. Hutson Auction/Straight No Chaser Benefit Concert for Outstanding Special Project; Operation Main Street: Business Success Series for Best Economic Restructuring Project; Claire Bruce for Volunteer of the Year; and State Beauty Supply for Business Excellence.

Three of the four nominations submitted have received semi-finalist status. Those nominations include the Charles L. Hutson Auction/Straight No Chaser Benefit Concert, Operation Main Street: Business Success Series and Volunteer of the Year.

Old Town Cape is a nationally accredited Main Street Program that works to build a downtown community that cherishes its past and is an economically viable district in which the citizens of Cape Girardeau can live, work and play.
