Old Town Cape announces pre-sale for 2014 Gone Girl Christmas ornaments June 6, 2014 | Contact: Marla Mills, Executive Director | 573.334.8085

CAPE GIRARDEAU, MO. – Old Town Cape announces “Gone Girl Downtown” as the 2014 Christmas ornament. The 2014 ornament is a limited edition, numbered piece produced by Hestia and is the eighteenth in a series. It depicts a scene from Gone Girl that includes the Common Pleas Courthouse and The Bar.

Gone Girl was published in 2012 by award-winning writer, Gillian Flynn. It is a suspense thriller about a wife that goes missing in a small river town called North Carthage, Missouri. It became a best-seller and quickly was picked to become a major motion picture.

Cape Girardeau was chosen for much of the filming for the movie with stars such as Ben Affleck, Rosamund Pike, Neil Patrick Harris and Tyler Perry playing some of the main characters. The film crew was here for six weeks while using many places for filming including the Common Pleas Courthouse, the River Walk and The Bar that they made their own. Gone Girl will release in theaters October 3, 2014.

Pre-orders can be placed for ornaments with or without a stand can be placed by calling Old Town Cape at 573-334-8085. The cost of the ornaments are $30 with a stand and $25 without and full payment for the orders will be expected when the order is placed.

Other ornaments available for sale include: Oliver-Leming House, Mississippi Riverboat, The Hutson's Christmas Window, The Schultz School, The Glenn House, The River Campus, Port Cape Girardeau, The Red House, The Marquette Hotel, Old Lorimier School, Old St. Vincent's Church and a Millennium depiction (fireworks over Old Town Cape). Ornaments that are no longer available for sale include: the Clock and Courthouse, Academic Hall, the Old Mississippi Bridge, the Emerson Bridge and the Southeast Missourian Building.
