Port Cape Girardeau organizes benefit for Old Town Cape

June 28, 2012 | Contact: Marla Mills, Executive Director | 573.334.8085

CAPE GIRARDEAU, MO. – Old Town Cape has partnered with Port Cape Girardeau to sell smoked pork butts through Tuesday, July 3rd. The pork butts are fully cooked and seasoned for $28 each plus tax. Each pork butt is approximately 5 lbs.

From each pork butt sale, $5 will be donated to Old Town Cape. There is no limit on the number of pork butts that may be ordered, but each order must be picked up from Port Cape Girardeau (19 N. Water) by 9 p.m. on July 3rd. For more information, contact Port Cape Girardeau at 573-334-0954.

Old Town Cape is a nationally accredited Main Street Program that works to build a downtown community that cherishes its past and is an economically viable district in which the citizens of Cape Girardeau can live, work and play.
