OLD TOWN CAPE ANNOUNCES HUTSON'S CHRISTMAS WINDOW AS 2011 ORNAMENT

Cape Girardeau, MO – Old Town Cape announces the release of the 2011 Christmas ornament depicting Hutson's Christmas Window. The 2011 ornament is a limited edition, numbered piece produced by Hestia and is the fifteenth in a series.

The Hutson's Christmas Window is a long standing and significant holiday tradition in our community as a point of interest in the Old Town Cape District. "The Hutson family is really humbled and believes it is an honor to have our store's Christmas window memorialized in this way. It looks awesome," said Chris Hutson of Hutson's Fine Furniture.

Other ornaments available for sale include: The Schultz School, The Glenn House, The River Campus, Port Cape Girardeau, The Red House, The Marquette Hotel, Old Lorimier School, Old St. Vincent's Church and a Millenium depiction (fireworks over Old Town Cape). Ornaments that are no longer available for sale include the Clock and Courthouse, Academic Hall, the Old Mississippi Bridge, the Emerson Bridge and the Southeast Missourian Building.

Businesses selling the ornaments include Lang Jewelers, Jayson Jewelers, Cape Girardeau Convention & Visitors Bureau, Zickfield Jewelers, Knaup Floral, C.P. McGinty Jewelers, Bob's Shoe Service, Shivelbine's Music, Pastime Antiques, Hutson's Fine Furniture and Renaissance.

For more information about the ornaments, call the Old Town Cape office at 334-8085.

Old Town Cape is a nationally accredited Main Street Program that works to build a downtown community that cherishes its past and is an economically viable district in which the citizens of Cape Girardeau can live, work and play.
